

Mercy Community does not make any guarantees, warranties or representations as to the currency, fitness for purpose, accuracy, reliability, completeness or compliance with any law, regulations or other governmental requirements, in respect of any of documents it provides. None of the information contained in any documents provided by Mercy Community constitutes any form of legal, financial or other professional advice. Mercy Community accepts no legal liability for the accuracy, reliability, currency or completeness of any documents or information it provides, and the receiving party should seek appropriate independent professional advice before using such material or making any decisions based on it.

To whom it may concern,

Mercy Community provides information under the Information Privacy Act 2009. This means only your personal information will be provided, all other information about third parties will either be redacted or not provided. You can request your personal information by completing the attached GOV FORM Request for Personal Information and email it to privacy@mercycommunity.org.au.

If you are requesting information about third parties or information belonging to the Department of Children, Youth Justice and Multicultural Affairs you can contact the Right to Information, Information Privacy and Screening unit at the Department of Children, Youth Justice and Multicultural Affairs directly by calling their hotline on 1800 809 078. Alternatively, you can download an application form at www.rti.qld.gov.au.

If you are unhappy with the information that has been provided, you have the right to complain to the Australian Information Commissioner. You can contact them by:

- Visiting their website – www.oaic.gov.au;
- Calling them on 1300 363 992;
- Emailing them at enquiries@oaic.gov.au;
- Faxing them on (02) 9284 9666, or
- Posting your complaint to them at GPO Box 5218, Sydney, NSW, 2001.

Kind regards,

<worker name>

Foster and Kinship Care Practitioner

<office>